Look Out for Morons

Something must be done by the authorities to prevent the crazy and irresponsible actions of such morons as the one who abducted little Ellen Kirwan of Hamilton Park Monday afternoon. A similar case occurred a few weeks ago, and many cases have been reported of late where so-called "simple minded" men have carried away children, some of whom have been abused shamefully. Naturally the families of these unfortunates do not like to have them confined, but the welfare of the public demands that they be restrained, not for a few weeks, but for as long a time as they are irresponsible. Parents have been so aroused by such abductions that they are afraid to send their children to school or to allow them to leave their homes. There is a law that will care for just such cases, but it is a dead letter so long as no one will make complaints and see it enforced. All such cases should be reported to the police that they may arrest this dangerous class, and then they must prosecute, and have the unfortunate irresponsibles put away in a safe institution.

Much Needed Convenience

An ordinance has been introduced in the city council compelling owners and occupants to place the numbers of their premises on the rear as well as the front doors or fences. This means much to facilitate the prompt delivery of all packages which are compelled to be delivered by the rear entrance, especially the milkmen, paper carriers and delivery wagons. It is a matter of trifling expenditure and owners should place their numbers on their rear entrances without being compelled to do so by ordinance.

That "Story of Englewood"

The committee is working faithfully in gathering data and preparing material on hand to use in this voluntary history of Englewood for the Englewood Business Men's association. Everyone is donating their services, and all that is asked of anyone is their contribution in reminiscences and experiences in the early days of our town, yet some who promised articles and data are very slow in getting them to the committee. It is a labor of love on the part of the committee, which is composed of very busy men, and they feel that there should be a more liberal response to their plea for articles. We need the matter right now, and insist that old residents send in their material, that we may make a thorough job of the "Story." If you have any old literature on Englewood, any old photographs or material of any kind that could be used in this work, kindly send them in and they will be returned to you in as good condition as when received. For any information on the subject call any of the committee or the chairman, Gerald E. Sullivan, 540 W. 63rd St., phone Wentworth 4731.

AN ACTUAL, UNSOLICITED LETTER FROM A CHICAGO MOTHER, EXACTLY AS SHE WROTE IT:

"I wish to express my appreciation of your excellent products. Your milk and cream I have found richer and more delicious than any I have tried. Your butter is wonderful and always fresh and sweet. My one-year-old baby thrives so well on your milk that she is many pounds over weight, and in answer to the inevitable question, 'What on earth do you feed her?' I reply: 'Wanzer's.'"

Art of Chinese Gardeners.

Chinese gardeners sometimes plant statuettes of tiny men finely in posts, just like real plants, and then train live evergreens to grow up over these statuettes. The vines thus form a kind of robe for the statuette men their white faces and hands protruding from the green leaves.

Legion News

Dance Tonight—The Legion at the Seventh Regiment armory tonight, Nov. 26th.

Thanks to the generosity of the business men of Englewood, the turkey to be given by the Englewood Post, No. 61, promises to be a great success. The committee in charge of arrangements is doing everything in its power to entertain the patrons good time. The hall is being decorated for the occasion and the floor has been scraped, waxed and polished and covered up with sawdust and it seems to be just one sheet of glass.

Arrangements are now being made to secure Eddie Cantor or some other leading star of a downtown theatrical company to appear in the hall, which will add to the entertainment. Rumor has it that the Gasoline Alley characters have already been secured for that evening.

An oil painting of Betsy Ross making the first American flag, which was donated by an Englewood furniture house, will be raffled off at about 12 o'clock that evening. The proceeds of the sale of these tickets is for the benefit of the Christmas fund.

The post plans to pay a visit to one of the hospitals this Christmas and bring a little cheer to our buddies who are confined there. Last Christmas the post visited the buddies at Oak Forest Infirmary, and the possibility is that this year we will pay the Speedway hospital a visit. Don't forget. Every ticket that you buy for this raffle means just that much more money for the boys in the hospital, and besides you may be the lucky winner of a $50 oil painting.

There will be a special meeting of the post Friday evening, Nov. 25th. Final arrangements will be made for the dance. All members are commanded to be present.

Benefit Starving Children

Every German-American and Austrian-Hungarian society, lodge, and church of the south side has helped make arrangements for a big Christmas bazaar to be held December 5 to 10 at White City, Sixty-third street and South Park avenue, in benefit of needy and starving children of central Europe.

Money or donations of any kind will be thankfully received by members of the committee in charge. Checks or money orders are made payable to Henry F. Jaeger, president, of the Guarantee Trust and Savings bank, Sixty-third and Green streets.

Children in the devastated regions of central Europe, regardless of race or creed, are to receive food through the proceeds of this drive, and every community member will want to have a part in contributing to this worthy cause.

Anything in condition for selling will be thankfully received for this bazaar. Do not watch your own child go off well dressed and well fed to school without remembering the little unfortunate ones across the water, and without lending a hand to help them into some decent comfort.

To Save Is to Have

Suppose you save 25 cents a day. That does not mean much to the average man. You won't miss it.

Yet that 25 cents a day in ten years grows to nearly a thousand dollars. And the interest, which we pay you for saving your money, brings the total to well over eleven hundred dollars.

Think of what you can do with this.

Realize Your Dreams

Just a few years of small but steady savings will bring you many of the things you are longing for. Perhaps you want a car. Perhaps you want to buy the farm next to you. Perhaps you want to start a son in business, or to go traveling, or to educate yourself or your children.

Saving will do all these. And best of all, you will have formed the saving habit and will never be one of the nine men out of every ten who pass their last years penniless—in the poorhouse or dependent on others.

WITH A CAST OF THOUSANDS OF PLAYERS

A story of a lily that bloomed in the mud of violence and hate, of mob-hearts twisted and torn of a man lost and glad to be lost in his love—All for a Woman

A tremendous and amazing spectacle of love and hate—of passions and violence—of human emotions that burst their bonds of slavery

Added—HAROLD LLOYD COMEDY and PATHE NEWS

Read What the Harvard Offers the Coming Week

Manager Coston has made an elegant selection of high class plays for the coming week. Beginning today he offers a special production and dramatic photo production, "All for a Woman," a stupendous story of the loves of the mighty. A story of a lily that bloomed in the mud of violence and hate; of mob-hearts twisted and torn; of a man lost and glad to be lost in his love—all for a woman. "A speaking achievement in the photography of silence; a high-light in a world of shadowgraphs."—Geo V. Hobart, famed American playwright "From the beginning to end, the most interesting, most thrilling picture of the day"—Raymond Hitchcock, greatest figure of the American stage. Also Pathe News and a new two-part comedy

For Saturday, tomorrow, continuous from 2 to 11:30, comes the illustrious actor, Bert Lyttel, in a thrilling picturization of the story, "Lady Fingers. Unlike most of the usual run of crook dramas, "Lady Fingers" deals with the career of the orphaned child of a family of wealth who by accident is brought to the attention of a notorious safe breaker Because of the little lad's delicate hands which earn him the name of Lady Fingers, he is educated in the risky art of opening strong boxes His proficiency gains him a national reputation with the police, who, while trying to trap him, learn that the much wanted safe cracker is the heir to the fortune of his grandmother. The valuable pearls of that grandmother become a lure to Lady Fingers, who is ignorant of his relationship, and his entrance as a thief into the home where he is being sought as the heir brings about complications which make "Lady Fingers" one of the most powerful dramas of the screen Also International News and a two-part Christie comedy, and matinee only, 'Winners of the West.'

On Sunday, Nov 27th, continuous from 2 to 11:30, the Harvard offers the good little bad girl, Bebe Daniels, in her crowning triumph, "The Speed Girl" The story of "The Speed Girl," which opens next Sunday at the Harvard theatre, concerns a fascinating little feminine daze-devil who becomes a motion picture star and specializes on stunts Interesting scenes showing the heroine at work in the studio give the audience a glimpse of the actual working day of a star Bebe Daniels portrays the stellar role, and a very sparkling comedy-drama is promised, with a large supporting cast assisting Miss Daniels in the fun-making. Also first run Pathe News, a scream Mack Sennett comedy, and matinee only, "Hurricane Hutch.

On Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 28th and 29th, matinee and night, comes the wonderful production, direct from the "Loop," "Experience." It proves to be an artistic delight for all who behold the photoplay The story is allegorical and deals with the adventures of a youth who goes to the city to make his fortune and who meets with temptation, ignores opportunity and giving way to pleasure, fails miserably. But love, who has followed him, beckons him home again, where he finds happiness and the love he had ignored. The picture is quite charming and a reminder of "Everywoman" in treatment. Also a good two-part comedy, Travelogues and Topical News.

For Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 30th and Dec. 1st, matinees and nights, they present William de Mille's Paramount production, "After the Show," featuring Jack Holt, Lila Lee, and Charles Ogle The story deals with the fortunes of a chorus girl, the "angel" of the show and an old stage doorkeeper who watches over the unsophisticated maid. The situations are thrilling at times and the picture as a whole shows marked advance in cinema production The cast is exceptionally clever Also a very funny two-part comedy picture, Topical Events and an interesting Travelogue

Dixon's Big Review at Englewood Theatre

Considerable interest is centered in the forthcoming engagement at Englewood theatre, where Henry Dixon's "Big Review" is underlined to hold the boards, commencing the week of Sunday Matinee, Nov. 27th

As in former seasons, Mr. Dixon has mustered an incomparable cast, which includes the inimitable Harry (Hickey) Levan, Bessie Baker, May Smith, Stella Powell, Clara Devine, Bobbie Gore, Tom Gaffney, Ralph Rogers, and others. Two rollicking comedies will be presented They bear the titles of "The Perfect Man" and "Strike, Struck, Stricken," the latter being a clever travesty on the universal strike question Twenty young and beautiful women of class and dignity comprise the chorus. During the action of the offering a dozen exclusive song hits, numbers and ensembles will be introduced Despite the cost of this unusual presentation, there will be no increase in the price of the seats

Fine Programs at Stratford Theatre Coming Week

The name Stratford theatre is synonomous with "good shows" and each week sees them offering something better than the week before. This week is no exception and they come forward with a wonderful exhibition of talent and dramatic art, the best in the film world.

For Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 27th, 28th and 29th, they offer the great DeMille production, "After the Show.' A fascinating story of stage life is William DeMille's latest Paramount picture production "After the Show." Jack Holt, Lila Lee and Charles Ogle, the featured players, appear to fine advantage in their respective roles. Mr. Holt as a millionaire "angel" of a musical comedy of the chorus of which Lila Lee is a member, and Mr. Ogle as an old disappointed stage door keeper, contribute much to the enjoyableness of the picture. There are many dramatic and pathetic scenes artistically portrayed, while the production as a whole is fully up to the high artistic DeMille standard. It rivets one's attention and it is in every respect a production of the highest grade. With it at every performance is the Stratford Jazz orchestra, overture, comedy, selected vaudeville and News Weekly

For Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Nov 30th, Dec. 1st and 2nd, comes Englewood's own Tom Gallery in "The Son of Wallingford," written and directed by Mr. and Mrs. George Randolph Chester, authors of "Get Rich Quick Wallingford This is a delightful story of a young man, who by his keenness outwits his millionaire father, who is questionable in his transactions, while the son goes straight. A funny picture a good one, and one that carries a moral. Also the acrobatic Larry Semon in the most laughable effort of his life, "The Bellhop." This will make a blind man laugh and is Old "Doc" Robertson's prescription for the blues. Try it and be cured

On Saturday, Dec 3rd, with a special matinee for the kiddies, with full orchestra and many added attractions. Also souvenirs for the children, who are all invited to come and have a good time.

On Sunday, Dec. 4th, the world-famous comedians, Savoy and Brennan, the real laughmakers of "Greenwich Village Follies," and Wanda Hawley in "Her Face Value" This is the pretty star's latest and greatest success. Starting Monday, Dec 5th, comes the wonder of the scenic stage, "The Sheik," with Rudolph Valentino and Agnes Ayres and a star cast that with a thousand assistants present this drama that has made the rest of the film world stand still.

Every day and every night the Stratford is putting on good shows and people who really appreciate the best at moderate prices are thronging this beautiful house, and the management is bound to maintain their reputation.

E. A. R. Theatre Has Classical Plays This Week

An extraordinary program will greet patrons of the pretty E A. R theatre the coming week. Beginning today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, they will show one of the stage's greatest plays, "The Sign on the Door, with Norma Talmadge, Lew Cody and Charles Richman in Channing Pollock's great stage success "The Sign on the Door" is one of the most intensely dramatic pictures that has ever served as a vehicle for Norma Talmadge. She never had a picture better adapted to her modes and tenses It gives her ample opportunity for the display of charm and talent As a matter of fact you will not have realized just how much talent the girl has until you see her as Ann Hunnivell, who, later, as Mrs Lafe Regan, takes a chance on being sent to the electric chair in an effort to save her husband and her husband's daughter. There will be added comedy, "Exit Quietly," and Fox News and on Saturday, matinee only, 'Winners of the West.'

On Sunday, Nov 27th, they will show Harry Carey in "The Fox," a wonderful play of subleties and thrills that has won a record in the big houses all over the country, there will also be a comedy, "Bad Eggs," and matinee only, the latest episode of "Terror Trail."

On Monday, Nov 28th comes the great historical French play, a memoir of the bloody days of the French Revolution, with a cast of a thousand characters in "All for a Woman,' an historical clipping that will interest everyone "All for a Woman" is an epitome of what has been characterized "the most dramatic hour in history" It relates the downfall of George Jacques Danton, erstwhile friend of Robespierre, whom he shunned for his bloodthirstiness With him went his coterie of friends, who had forgotten the turmoil of the revolution in the newly discovered veil of love and passion which had enshrouded them Added will also be a fine Harold Lloyd comedy and Pathe News.

The Modern Laundry has made another reduction in laundry prices which will interest our readers. Fifteen pounds family washing, $1 80, including all flat work, starching and drying wearing apparel (handkerchiefs ironed 2 cents each), or 23, 24, 25 pounds, same service, $2.35; over 25 pounds, 9 cents per pound. Mrs. Harriett Palmer Schorr, 8950 Bishop st., dearly beloved wife of Mr. G. Frederick Schorr, fell asleep on November 20th and was laid to rest on Tuesday afternoon in Waldheim cemetery, Woodlawn chapter, O. E. S., having charge of the services. Mrs. Schorr will be missed by the tots in the neighborhood. She was a general favorite with them and was never happier than when planning pleasant surprises for them. Even though she was bereft of her own little laddie she never forgot how to play and was charmed to have groups of little ones in her pretty home. A born artist, she carried out the home beautiful in her own locality. Perhaps no one will miss her more than her husband, who has always been her chum. Mrs. Schorr's near and dear friends appreciated her, and to them she was always faithful.

One Hundred and Fourth place residents would appreciate a decent street. This pretty portion of the Ridge east of the Rock Island tracks has been rapidly built up with comfortable homes by substantial citizens and really it is perplexing to them to peer upon a regular untidy street. We hope our aldermen will take notice.

How Your Mail Is Delayed

During the holiday season large quantities of very small envelopes and cards are put into the mails, with the result that all postal work is very much retarded and mail disfigured and torn, according to Postmaster Arthur C. Lueder. This is not generally known to the public. The minimum size of cards and envelopes should not be below two and three-quarters by four inches, for the following reasons:

1. Addresses will be obliterated by cancellation marks.
2. They are too small to be handled on facing table, necessitating three extra handlings with consequent delay not only to this but other mail.
3. Delayed in cancellation because they must be postmarked by hand stamp instead of through cancelling machines.
4. Delayed through difficulty in sorting.
5. Liable to losses or damages, as small sizes do not fit letter packages and cannot be tied securely.

These odd and diminutive size pieces of stationery have come into use in the last few years, and only appear now in any quantity at Christmas time when the whole postal institution is speeded up to top speed and trying to keep on top of the load, and it will be greatly appreciated if the public will use stationery of the proper size in order that the handling of all mail may be expedited.

Geo. G. Meade Post 444 Entertain

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 15th, Meade post No. 444, G. A. R., gave dinner to the comrades and their wives, the department officers, the officers of the Sons of Veterans and the Daughters of Veterans and the Woman's Relief Corps No. 136. There was a sumptuous dinner prepared and served by the women of Meade corps, who are always ready to serve the post in every way possible. The dining room was prettily decorated and up to the notch for the occasion. Mrs. Ida Johnson was in charge. Dinner being over, everybody went to the upper hall, where Comrade Goldsmith had a nice program in waiting. After introducing the various officers, each one gave a short, interesting talk. Bishop Fallows told about the Grant monument, Mrs. Jessie Schroeder, the dinner to be given to the G. A. R. veterans on Tuesday, Dec. 6th; Mrs. Nicholls, on the good of the order. The department president of the Sons of Veterans was present. Department Commander Wright was presented with a beautiful basket of flowers by President Robb of the Sons of Veterans. Mrs. Sill gave a poem, "Our Old Grand Army Boy." There were many others among them. Mrs. Darling, national office; Mrs Lorimer; Mrs. Compton, national president of the Daughters of Veterans; Mrs. Minnie Nicholls, department secretary; Mrs. Murdoch; Mrs. Renett, president of Meade Corps; Mrs. Grossman, president of Tent 20; Mrs. Hill, president of Tent 5, Daughters of Veterans. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

Stealing the Times

We have been receiving a number of complaints of regular subscribers missing their papers that we are satisfied were delivered to their mail boxes, and were taken out before the subscriber could get to the box. We will pay a reward of $5.00 for the arrest and conviction of anyone found guilty of stealing our paper from the mail boxes, or we will send the paper free for a year to anyone who really wants the paper bad enough to steal it, and hasn't the money to pay for it. The letter carriers are all friendly with the Times, and are the surest and best bunch of boys that pack Uncle Sam's mail sacks, and we know that they deliver the papers to the proper addresses, hence it is outsiders who are guilty of stealing them. We are naturally flattered that we are in such demand that people are bound to have the Times even if they have to steal it, but we will appreciate it more if these people will send us their names and addresses and we will send the paper to them free.

Please Write Plainly

While we appreciate locals and articles of local interest sent us, we can not spend hours in deciphering them. It is not crude penmanship that bothers a compositor so much as those who put on the "curleycues" and flourishes that cross the lines. Take plenty of space, also always give initials of names, and the correct address to identify people properly. If using a telephone be sure to use the exchange. We receive many ads without this important feature. Don't send us "card of thanks," we don't believe in them, and charge regular rates for publishing them, twenty-five cents a line. All copy must be in by Wednesday evening.

No Times Ads Wasted

The Englewood Times is distributed by U. S. letter carriers; every copy goes direct to the hands of a subscriber who pays for it and therefore values it. Every issue contains all of the clean local news of the territory between Garfield blvd. and south city limits, State st. west to Chicago Lawn, gathered by our staff of correspondents who are residents of the different districts, thus being able to print the news that interests the people in each district, and making the Times the only reliable means of reaching the real active people of the territory. There are no blank tickets in an Englewood Times ad., every one is read by people who have money to spend or they would not pay for the paper. We have advertisers who have carried advertising with us for over thirty years continuously. Why do you suppose they have done it? Whatever you want to dispose of, whether merchandise or real estate, have a room to rent or a flying machine to sell, want a maid or a wife, want to exchange a threshing machine for a cambric needle—you will find it profitable to advertise it in the wide awake columns of the Times. Try it.

News of American Legion

Thanks to the generosity of the business men of Englewood, the dance to be given by the Englewood Post, No. 16, promises to be a great success. The committee in charge of arrangements is doing everything in its power to assure the patrons a good time. The hall is being decorated for the occasion, and the floor has been scoured with sandpaper, and doped up with oil and wax till it is just like one sheet of glass.

Arrangements are now being made to secure Eddie Cantor, or some other leading star of a downtown theatrical company, to appear in the hall, which will add to the entertainment. Rumor has it that the Gasoline Alley characters have already been secured for that evening.

An oil painting of Betsy Ross making the first American flag, which was donated by an Englewood furniture house, will be raffled off at about 12 o'clock that evening. The proceeds of the sale of these tickets is for the benefit of the Christmas fund.

The post plans to pay a visit to one of the hospitals this Christmas and bring a little cheer to our buddies who are confined there. Last Christmas the post visited the buddies at Oak Forest infirmary, and the possibility is that this year the Speedway hospital will receive a visit. Don't forget. Every ticket that you buy for this raffle means more money for the boys in the hospital; and besides you may be the lucky winner of a fifty dollar oil painting.

There will be a special meeting of the post Friday evening, November 25. Final arrangements will be made for the dance. All members are commanded to be present.

Square Post

A half dozen members of Square post attended a housewarming of Mr. and Mrs. Arley Eaton, 7201 S. Park avenue, last Saturday evening. Square post presented to Mr. and Mrs. Eaton at this time a handsome mantel clock.

Twenty members of Square post and their wives and lady friends took the hike Sunday through the Forest Preserve near Chicago Heights. The noon meal was cooked in the open, and such enthusiasm for the hike was evidenced that it is planned to keep up these hikes every Sunday till bad weather begins.

Tuesday evening a community meeting was held at the Auburn Park Masonic temple and the beginning of a woman's auxiliary to the post was made. While the regular Legion meeting occurred the outsiders were entertained by the Temple band. Then the colors were brought in and Senior Vice-Commander Schick and State Commander McCauley talked to the assembled people concerning Legion aims and work. Mr. C. W. Burton, chairman, 7307 Emerald avenue, outlined the plans for the woman's auxiliary and announced the first meeting for Friday, Nov. 25, at Hamilton Park field house. All who are wives, mothers, daughters, or sisters of ex-service men are eligible to membership and will be made welcome at this meeting.

The Rev. A. R. Gay, chaplain of the post, spoke on his experiences as a navy chaplain at this meeting, and several well handled vaudeville stunts were presented.

Next Sunday the members of Square post with their families will attend Legion Day at the Rev. Gay's church, Auburn Park Federated church, at 10:45 a. m.

On Saturday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock all the members will meet at Fifty-fifth and Halsted streets and march in a body to the exercises at the laying of the corner stone of the new Masonic temple, to be erected at Sixty-fourth and Green streets.

Reduction in Laundry Prices

The Modern Laundry has made another reduction in laundry prices which will interest our readers. Fifteen pounds family washing, $1.80, including all flat work, starching and drying wearing apparel (handkerchiefs ironed 2 cents each), or 23, 24, 25 pounds, same service, $2.35; over 25 pounds, 9 cents per pound. The more you send the cheaper the price. Cor. 58th and Halsted sts. Two phones, Wentworth 987-988.—adv.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

On the sea of matrimony
T's a knack to keep afloat.
He who pays the alimony
Is the fool that locks the boat.

Casey says, "No, me woife don't choose me clothes, she only picks me pockets."

One hod carrier shouted to another: "Don't ye'z come down that ladder, I'm afther takin' it away."

Casey says: "Sum wimin are so fond iv argymints tho: they won't ate inythin that agrees wid 'em."

Sure, of course we're thankful. We might have had to live in Blue Island, or some other seaport.

It was a cross old bachelor who told me that "A fool and his money are soon married."

Casey says: "Sum toimes marriage is a tie, but in most cases the famale side wins."

Women are increasing in height. Due no doubt to their constantly standing up for their rights.

The proper study of mankind may be man, as the philosopher says, but the popular study of man is woman.

I can't understand why people complain of the high cost of fruit now: just think of what the first apple cost in the garden of Eden.

Love is described as the emotion that persuades a girl she would enjoy sweeping up cigar ashes after a man for life.

I know an Englewood lady who said: "These shoes are too comfortable to be a good fit; they must be a size smaller to suit me."

It seems that any country in the disarmament conference is perfectly willing for the other countries to disarm.

The Blue Island papers say that "The country is in a ferment." Sure, I know that, and in most cases the "ferment" is illegal hootch, at that.

Let any of those who are decrying Englewood's prosperity try to buy any real estate in the business districts, and he will think he is in the "loop" district from the prices asked.

Patsy tells me that Robinson Crusoe must have been some acrobat; then she read to me: "After he had finished his day's work he sat down on his chest."

Casey delivered an ovation recently and wound up with the preoration, "Christy Columbus discovered this grand country, Garge Washington rished it and Wood, Wilson dried.

Days are getting shorter—all except the one just before pay day.

Of course I would like to see universal and everlasting peace, but I am afraid that some of the nations now at the conference have a dagger up their sleeves and a bomb hid conveniently in their coat tails.

He was telling his fellow chum about his latest girl: "She's some clever girl, got brains enough for two." "She's just the girl for you. Why don't you marry her?" was the enigametical answer.

The European nations owe Uncle Sam over a thousand million dollars, and naturally want us to forgive and cancel all war debts, which reminds me of the man who wanted to divide the family assets equally by his taking the inside of the house and giving his wife all of the outside.

Goldenstein was discovered with his youngest hopeful shaking him with great energy from side to side and up and down in a rapid whirl, until his wife asked: "For why do you pe shaking our poy?" and he told her. "Vy, the silly leetle fool took his medicine and forgot to shake the pottle like it says so on it, unt now I must do de shaking, see?"

I heard yesterday of an Englewood merchant who was persuaded to buy a case of "love letter ink," the principal feature of which was that in a short time the ink would fade entirely and leave the page blank, and was an especial safeguard against breach of promise cases. After receiving the ink, the dealer asked for the merchant's thirty-day note for the same, which was received the next mail and duly filed, but when it was examined at the expiration of the time to be sent for collection, the paper on which it was written was found blank, the wise merchant had used the "love letter ink" he had bought in writing the note to pay for it.

It was some years ago when we had a certain irascible but very successful doctor living in Englewood, who appearing as a witness in court was put through a terrible rough cross-examination by a local attorney. Not long after the attorney took sick and the doctor was sent for. After an examination he advised the patient to send for another doctor. "Am I so ill as that?" asked the patient feebly. "I don't know just how ill you are," said the old doctor, "but I do know that you are the pettifogging snipe that cross-examined me, and my conscience won't let me kill you, and I'll be darned if I want to cure you. Good day," and the old chap took his hat and cane and vanished.

J. W. Dean Killed by Auto

J. Warner Dean, for 32 years a resident of Chicago and for 30 years freight and ticket agent at the Chicago and Western Indiana station at 63rd and Wallace sts., was fatally injured Thursday night by a taxicab.

Mr. Dean was 73 years old last Monday. Thursday he celebrated his birthday and Thanksgiving day together, receiving congratulations from many friends at his home, 6242 Normal ave. At 5:15 o'clock he left the house to take a short walk. At 5:30 o'clock he was run down.

He was taken to St. Bernard's hospital. A letter in his pocket identified him and his wife and son, Frank D. Dean, were notified. At 7:30 o'clock he died. Another son, Chas. W. Dean, of Cleveland, Ohio, also survives.

Benjamin Kermer, 6242 Morgan st., driver of the taxicab, was arrested by police of the Englewood station and is being held pending the result of an inquest today.

Dinner by Christian Citizenship Committee

The Christian people of Chicago are waking up with reference to the open violation of law in this city. The men and women of this community from the bible classes and the church societies will assemble at the Englewood Presbyterian church, Yale ave. and 64th st., for a community dinner Tuesday, Nov. 29th, at 6 p. m.

At this dinner we will have community singing and speeches by Mrs. G. M. Mathes, honorary president of the Woman's Department of the Chicago Church Federation; Mr. E. J. Davis, Chicago superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, and others. The dinner is held under the auspices of the Christian Citizenship committee of the Woman's Department of the Chicago Church Federation, Mrs. Robert Nightingale, general chairman.

Stand for Strangers' Schemes

It is a well known fact that a stranger may come into a locality and work off any scheme, that if attempted by an old resident would be condemned. This is especially true in the many fields of advertising. Picture puzzles, cards, guessing contests, and a hundred other "small town" schemes will find encouragement and some support from alleged merchants who would not think of patronizing their home paper, other than in the free columns. Personally, we have no complaint, as the real merchants and wide-awake dealers keep our columns filled at each issue, even to compelling us to increase our sections, but we cite this as a strange truism that no one has ever been able to account for, and yet we claim to be a live section of the great city.

Those Cheap Muslin Signs

The surest sign of a "jay" town is the sight of cheap, gaudily colored muslin signs reaching across the sidewalks, and notwithstanding the work of the Commercial associations, certain aldermen will secure permits for their erection and override police rules and regulations and disfigure the streets with them. They are already beginning on 63rd St. and we propose to publish the names of aldermen who secure the permits against the wishes of the great majority of the merchants.

"The Blasphemer" is a Catholic Art Association production, written and directed by O. E. Goebel. No one can afford to miss this photoplay and the Holy Name society promises an enjoyable afternoon or evening to all who attend.

Second Irish Bond Drive

Present indications point to a great success for the drive in this locality, as the receipts of the first two evenings' work amounted to over five thousand dollars.

You can't afford to miss it. Both evenings at 6 o'clock, Dec. 6th and 7th, Tuesday and Wednesday, Englewood Masonic temple, 6721 Wentworth ave.
